

SUPD hosts frightful carnival

photos Ace Stryker/SU DRUM
The Southern Ute Police Department's annual Halloween Carnival at the SunUte Community Center was a fun-filled family fright fest complete with a haunted house, kids' games, cake walks and more. Hundreds of community members turned out in their best costumes — some spooky, some goofy — to try their hands (or claws) at the ghoulish games on Saturday, Oct. 29. Many from the youth community helped out by hosting competitions or dressing up like ghouls to startle those brave (or foolish) enough to enter the haunted house. Crystal Thompson, SUPD community resource officer, coordinated the event.
